

Here's a 4-day Goa itinerary tailored for a medium budget and utilizing bus travel:

**Goa - 4-Day Medium Budget Bus Traveler Itinerary****

This itinerary focuses primarily on North Goa, which offers a great mix of beaches, culture, markets, and nightlife, making it ideal for a medium-budget bus traveler. We'll include a glimpse of heritage and an option for a serene experience.

### **Key Assumptions:****

* **Arrival Point:** Your overnight bus will likely drop you at Mapusa or Panjim in the morning of Day 1.

* **Accommodation Base:** We recommend basing yourself in North Goa (e.g., Calangute, Baga, Anjuna, Vagator) for easy access to most activities in this itinerary. Budget guesthouses, hostels, or 2-3 star hotels fit the medium budget.

* **Internal Transport:** The most economical and flexible way to explore Goa is by renting a scooter/bike (approx. ■300-■400/day + petrol). Taxis are expensive, and local buses have limited routes and frequency.

**Travel Tips for Goa (Bus Traveler):**

1. **Book Accommodation in Advance:** Especially during peak season (Oct-March) and holidays, good budget options fill up fast.
2. **Rent a Scooter/Bike:** This is your best friend for navigating Goa. Always wear a helmet, carry your driving license, and check the bike's condition and fuel gauge before taking it. Bargain for the daily rate.
3. **Stay Hydrated:** Goa's weather can be humid. Drink plenty of water.
4. **Sun Protection:** Carry sunscreen, a hat, and sunglasses.
5. **Bargain at Markets:** Whether it's the Anjuna Flea Market, Saturday Night Market, or local souvenir shops, bargaining is expected.
6. **Try Local Cuisine:** Don't miss out on Goan fish curry, Prawn Balchão, Bebinca (dessert), and fresh seafood.
7. **Cash is King (sometimes):** While many places accept cards, smaller shacks and vendors often prefer cash. Keep some loose change.
8. **Safety First:** Be mindful of your belongings, especially on crowded beaches. Avoid swimming in rough seas or after consuming alcohol.
9. **Respect Local Culture:** Dress modestly when visiting religious sites.
10. **Flexible Itinerary:** This is a suggested plan. Feel free to adjust based on your interests. If you love a beach, stay longer! If a market isn't your thing, swap it for another activity.
11. **Check Market Days:** The Anjuna Flea Market is typically on Wednesdays, and the Saturday Night Market in Arpora is on Saturdays (seasonal, typically Nov-Apr).

12. **Bus Journey Comfort:** For your inter-state bus journey, carry a neck pillow, blanket/shawl, snacks, and water for a comfortable ride.
